In loving memory of Judy Benner! 1969-2017

Judy's devotion to Jesus, her husband Jim and her persona of laughter and joy will live in our hearts forever!

Dedication

To the GLORY of God through all the many who love and honor an awesome Heavenly Father and have helped and responded to the step-by-step revelation.

Many thanks to those whose prayer and support has made publishing this book possible!

We must start here with an Invitation

In LIVING TO FORGIVE we discovered the marvelous adventure of forgiving people, then the wonderful experience of healing destructive incidents and painful memories. In this sequel we are invited to go further in Kingdom deliverance, cleansing our soul and memory of anything that keeps us from being all that we can be in JESUS! (I John 3:1-2)

Forgiveness is an attribute of God's Character and Nature —an expression of His Grace and Compassion —His Love!

Instudying the WORD in the Bible, in meditating on it, in reading insights and revelation from others, in experiencing miracles from prayer, I want to shout from the housetops what I have learned in secret. (Matthew 10:27; Luke 12:3)

My desire to share what I have learned took a great leap of faith forward because of two groups who need it so much. Each time I heard that twenty-two Veterans commit suicide every day, my heart filled with compassion, and tears came. Then some friends went to Uganda to work with victims of the sex-trade industry—again the tears came as I heard their stories.

We all have emotional pain and memories to be healed, but those two groups have memories that destroy their lives. If we forgive the abusers, but still have the memory of the abuse, we suffer it all over again each time we remember it. I prayed and sought the LORD, and HE began to show me and reveal a 'pathway to prayer' in which we remember the incident but are healed of the pain and emotion connected to the trauma.

The last two years have been ignited with passion for the 'HEART OF GOD' in all of this. And more than I had hoped or imagined, step—by—step, the HOLY SPIRIT opened up my heart to an additional step in 'forgiving judgments.'

When JESUS declared on the cross, "FORGIVE THEM..." it was as though GOD enacted the law of forgiveness, like the law of gravity, into the universe. Available to all mankind, if we are willing to open our mouth and speak forgiveness, the resurrected power of JESUS is there to heal, restore, and change minds, hearts, and circumstances. (Luke 23:34)

Example:

Someone steals your purse, you may forgive them, but you still think they are a thief. Your judgment helps to lock them in that behavior. Whereas if you ask GOD to forgive your judgment and bless them, that 'supernatural act' of faith can change hearts, minds, and circumstances.

The Know Not What They Do covers the judgment that is left behind. (Luke 23:34)

The Resurrection Power In All Of This Is Overwhelmingly Wonderful!

I am still in awe of what I have learned. More on 'judgment' in Part One, and examples of how this can bless our lives. GOD has many ways to heal; this is one path HE has given me. Many around me have begun to use the revelation GOD has given, and we are making it a 'lifestyle.' My prayer is for you to join us, and we can all help ourselves or someone else to overcome!

PART ONE

Even words like marvelous and wonderful are woefully inadequate to describe the love of our HEAVENLY FATHER. This is an 'invitation' because we must use our imagination (doorway to the supernatural) to understand the mechanics of clearing our way to spiritual victories. There is nothing new under the sun... but there is new understanding. (Ecclesiastes 1:9; Ephesians 2:7; 3:9-10)

Thoughts are contained in the mind and can be changed. But once we speak our thoughts they become part of both the physical and spiritual atmosphere around us. Words create both life and death--blessings or curses—negative or positive energy. JESUS said that even 'idle words' are important. (2 Corinthians 10:5; Proverbs 16:21-24; 18:21; Matthew 12:34, 35, 36)

Words that bless are used by the HOLY SPIRIT and the angels in all our lives to bless us. Words that bless must be in agreement with the will of GOD (desires of HIS Heart) and in harmony with Heaven. (Psalm 103:21; Hebrew 1:7)

Word curses or words that condemn, on the other hand, hang out in the supernatural realm, (Matthew 18:18-23; Proverbs 18:19) giving power to the evil spirits that come to kill, rob, and destroy. (John 10:10) Until these word curses are repented of or are forgiven, they continue to be used by evil spirits.

Like Towels On A Clothes Line. . .

It is extremely important that we understand the difference between Judgment and Discernment.

The judgment of offenses causes desires to 'fix' another person, change them, or control them. We want to have justice, and then punishment for the wrongful act, all in the name of what is 'right' and like the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil described in the book of Genesis in the Bible. Agreeing with Satan lost Adam and Eve the Garden and personal relationship with GOD. And we inherited that 'sin nature' of disobedience from them.

Discernment, on the other hand, causes us to have compassion, mercy, and forgiveness for the person, knowing the power of GOD will take over. We are messengers on behalf of others, partners with the HOLY SPIRIT who will organize and direct the actual results of our prayers. Thank GOD HE is the senior partner! Discernment reflects the TREE OF LIFE from Genesis and the teachings of JESUS as confirmed in chapter 22 of Revelation.

One way to understand why we have such a 'battle in the mind' is that the sin-nature gives a propensity to evil; however, created in the image of GOD, we have choice because of 'free will.' So, we have a capacity to choose good. (Genesis 1-3)

Unfortunately, mankind often studies the Bible and uses it to judge others and themselves, all under the guise of good and evil, lacking the discernment of the HOLY SPIRIT for compassion, mercy, and grace.

Words give power in agreement to GOD or to the evil of the demonic realm. So, this book will focus on the following:

- JUDGMENT personal condemnation of person or incident
- OPINION relating to a person or event
- DETERMINATION mindset resolute in thoughts, words, and actions that affect our lives

For convenience, I will use the word 'judgment' for all three.

Let us be very clear, we are not forgiving the curse or demonic influence, but forgiving the root cause, a judgment spoken by someone... then the curse may be reversed to a blessing in the Name of JESUS.

Everyone Who Offends Or Is Offended Needs Prayer!

Following are a few of the hundreds of scriptures on the subjects of this book. We all can read them and yet my heart was searching for 'how to use them' in this day and age. The LORD is sooooo faithful and precept upon precept HE gave insight and followed with confirmation. (Isaiah 28:10; Mark 16)

MATTHEW 5:7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

LUKE 6:27 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,

LUKE 6:37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

JOHN 8:15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

MARK 11:25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

MATTHEW 5:25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

MATTHEW 16:19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

MATTHEW 18:18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

JOHN 20:23 Whose soever sins you remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose so ever sins ye retain, they are retained. (remit=forgive; retain=hold on to).

ROMANS 2:1 Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

ROMANS 14:13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

JAMES 2:13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoices against judgment.

REVELATION 12:11 And they overcame him by the Blood of the Lamb, and by the Word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto death.

AS I SAID, 'THIS IS JUST A FEW.' THERE ARE SO MANY MORE...

How do we apply these and more in everyday life? LET'S LOOK AT WHAT WE HAVE LEARNED...

We will understand more easily if we substitute 'agreement' for obedience to follow JESUS... obedience sounds hard, but agreement is easier to understand and move (obey) in faith.

The words of JESUS sometimes seem hard to fulfill, and again the LORD helped me with these words, "The Bible is a direction, not a destination."

Forgiveness does not negate responsibility—a thief may have to go to jail, but forgiveness opens the door to GOD's intervention in their hearts to know HIM and HIS wonderful ways and possibly help others.

It is hard for those who don't feel forgiven to forgive others!

Satan, the devil, and his demons—evil spirits are mentioned in this book. If you don't believe they exist or you ignore them, my answer to you is that JESUS revealed and commanded them. In chapter four of Matthews, JESUS dealt with the devil with Scripture and so can we. Knowing the power of JESUS works within us, we need not ever fear them but confront and deal with them. (Ezekiel 28:6; Isaiah 14:12-16; Mark 16; Luke 10:19; Revelation 12:11)

PART TWO

These are simple offenses but important to see how God works!

Example One:

The grocery store was busy, and aisles crowded. As I maneuvered my basket from the produce section and headed to the frozen food department, I saw a challenge in front of me. A woman with a full basket was in the same aisle. There was no room to go around her, so I waited a couple of minutes. I noticed that if she would back up just a couple of feet, I could turn left out of her way. I could not back up as there were people shopping behind me.

"Excuse me, could you back up just a little and I will get out of the way?" I said, very nicely and with a big smile. She replied; OH BOY, did she reply, "Who do think you are? Do you think you own the store....you have a lot of nerve!" And she backed up, and I moved my cart faster than I even thought it could move. "Sorry," I sputtered.

Wow, I took a deep breath, and within seconds the HOLY SPIRIT reminded me "Everyone who offends needs prayer." I really thought I needed prayer....even though it was a simple thing and I could easily shrug my shoulders and move on. When the Bible says the HOLY SPIRIT will never leave or forsake us, it isn't whistling Dixie. There was the HOLY SPIRIT right next to the corn flakes, saying, "She really needs prayer!"

Immediately or sooner, I was so excited....I realized here was a perfect place to practice LIVING TO FORGIVE. That lady was so nasty; she probably had lots of problems. Instead of being annoyed and perhaps even speaking a word curse about her behavior (hanging it on our supernatural clothes line), I chose to pray.

I closed my eyes—didn't even think of other shoppers— "Heavenly Father, I forgive her sins, not just this, but all of them, and I break the assignment of the enemy on her life with the BLOOD of JESUS. I pray the 'veil' is removed from her mind that she might receive the things of GOD to meet her needs. I bless her with kindness, mercy, compassion, and the ability to receive your forgiveness so she can forgive others. Blessings and more in the name of JESUS!" (Matthew 7:51; 2 Corinthians 3:14-16)

I knew God would bless her, and I felt soooo good; it is so much more fun to be glad than mad!

NOTE: Years ago my delightful friend Judy, was praying for a gentleman after a meeting. She started to pray the BLOOD OF JESUS, and the HOLY SPIRIT told me to stop her. I did. We both looked like a doe caught in headlights...what now? We waited quietly, and soon the HOLY SPIRIT spoke to my heart to forgive his sins first—that we should always 'clean things up'...loose them from judgment, then apply or plead the BLOOD OF JESUS. (Matthew 23:18-27)

Plead is a legal term in the Bible just like we would use in a court of law. Prayers, especially declarations, go to the courts of Heaven. We want to use our legal rights according to the counsel and standards of our JUDGE—our HEAVENLY FATHER—in HIS WORD. Satan (the devil) is the accuser; JESUS is our Advocate.

The GRACE of GOD gives us the privilege to plead, pray, and apply the BLOOD OF JESUS because the following is still, and always will be, true—HIS BLOOD continues for us to be:

- Colossians 1:20—Reconciled
- Ephesians 1:7; I Peter 1:18, 19—Redeemed
- Romans 5:9—Justified
- Ephesians 2:13—Brought close to GOD
- I John 1:7—Cleansed From all sin
- Hebrews 12:24—Speak better things

- Hebrews 13:20—Perfect in every good work
- Hebrews 13:12—Sanctified
- Revelation 1:5—Washed from our sins
- Revelation 12:11—Victorious, along with the words of our testimony and love not our lives unto death.

When praying for people, forgiveness sets the 'stage' for applying 'the Blood of Jesus.' Both have supernatural power to change hearts, minds, and circumstances.

Example Two:

Aboard a large plane on a long trip, I decided to watch a movie. The gentleman in front of me, traveling with his wife and two-year-old son, leaned back so far that his movie screen was in my face.

Being the 'nice' person I have implied that I am, I asked if he could move his seat up just a little. He went ballistic—shouting he had paid for his seat, he needed his rest, he had a small child, etc. and that I should move my seat back. I had already tried and was unable to do that.

I was quicker on this one, and immediately forgave him and blessed him with mercy, compassion, and patience....and GRACE in all things In minutes he got up, came around to my seat, apologized, offered to move my seat, and asked if he could do anything else to help me.

We laughed, smiled, and enjoyed the rest of the trip. Later I quietly prayed for the whole family before we landed.

What a 'goody-two-shoes' you are thinking. No, no, no... this is exciting stuff to see how GOD loves making us peacemakers—it does take time to adjust to being a good guy but so much better than being mean and speaking curses. (Matthew 5: 9)

Forgiveness is not only a commandment of Jesus, but forgiveness is also a form of worship! (John 14)

PART THREE

Small incidents that hurt or offend, like 'wash clothes' on the supernatural clothes line... Let's look at 'bath towel' size spiritual offenses—hurtful wrong doings that steal our relationships and our joy.

Example One:

Have you ever been hurt by a Christian, by a Pastor or a church? Maybe you've been hurt by a group or organization. Here is my story and the victory to overcome:

After being a talk-show host on radio for a short time, I was drawn into ministry to help others. On the radio, I could not be dogmatic about my denomination but felt led to minister to all who called or asked.

The LORD brought a team together (wonderful loving volunteers from different churches) holding meetings in the county of San Diego. For over ten years we, the Line of Judah support team, just talked "JESUS," HIS Grace, and HIS Mercy to all who would listen and prayed for those in need. We were blessed to see miracles and deliverance at every meeting.

Six members became our own little family, with help from others at times. We met once a week and prayed for direction and anointing. It was beautiful.

When the decision was made to leave 'radio,' as a leader, I became slack about our weekly prayer meetings. Even though my team would bring me their problems and challenges, they began to resent what they deemed 'control,' and the team fell apart—three on one side and three on the other. I repented and tried to get their forgiveness....but it was as though someone had put up a wall. Now I know it was a veil of judgment by both sides. (2 Corinthians 3:14-16)

It was more painful to me than divorce (having been divorced). I spent days crying and seeking the LORD. One of the girls had been my prayer partner since we started the ministry, and she refused to talk with me. We attended the same church, so I went to the Pastor and his wife to ask for help. They declined to help and told me I would be blessed by forgiving without a meeting, even though I told them I just wanted to ask her to forgive me. To no avail! I was devastated—Ugh!—Just more hurt and judgment to forgive.

Please understand nothing went wrong or demanded anything on their part....no one slept with another's husband or stole money, etc., but the enemy put anger and hurt in all our hearts. Some of these incidents of rejection, by people we love and trust, may only be the enemy coming to 'kill, rob, and destroy.' (John 10:10)

After a few years, my relationship with two of my prayer partners was restored better than ever—with lots of prayer and forgiveness. One was restored and went on another path—unfortunately, two of our members were 'lost to us' so to speak.

The reason this is included is because I truly believe if we had known how to forgive our judgments of each other, the results would be totally different. We can forgive people for their acts, and we each did, but when we leave our judgments of what they did on the supernatural clothes line, the curses follow and wound us.

Once we learned to forgive incidents and judgments, the memory is there, but the emotional pain is gone.

Note:

When JESUS died on the cross the veil was rent (torn) from top to bottom—making GOD available to the world. The LORD revealed another truth—that in agreement with the 'devil' speaking word curses, especially about GOD, it allows the evil spirits to veil the mind.

We can forgive the words with the BLOOD of JESUS for ourselves. Or we can demand that veil be removed in the Name of JESUS, so the other person can again receive Divine Truth that sets men free. (Matthew 27:51; John 8:32; 2 Corinthians 3:14-16)

If they do the same thing again, we must forgive again and demand the veil removed like JESUS said —7 times 70. (Matthew 18)

Example Two:

Roommates, relatives, and spouses...

Living with someone or dealing with relatives can be stressful and requires a lot of loving Grace. With the best of intentions words are spoken, judgments made, and curses hang on the clothes line.

A couple of my married friends have shared with me the difference in how forgiving their judgments, as well as the 'fiery darts' (ugly words), from loved ones, changes the situation. (Ephesians 6:16)

Forgiveness dwells in 'giving up our right to be right.'

One friend shared how she and her husband had agreed to limit their consumption of social drinking. It was harder for her husband, and when neighbors or family invited him to join them, he did—sometimes in excess.

She would become angry—because it was wrong—and hold on to that resentment for days. As she learned to forgive and ask GOD to forgive her judgment of him—erasing all the condemnation she felt, her actions opened the door for the HOLY SPIRIT to work. Blessing him with the opposite of his behavior, he became thoughtful—telling her the next day he had been wrong and works harder now to be less vulnerable.

Some of the 'simple things' grow in number and become destructive in relationships until people are wounded, separated, and left wondering what happened.

We can take the Bible and use it to judge ourselves and others, or see it as a testimony of other people's relationship to GOD in the Old Testament and the revealing of JESUS, Heavenly FATHER, and HOLY SPIRIT in the New Testament to lead, guide, and deliver us from us...cause we are our problem.

Satan (the devil) has not changed. He is still trying to 'kill, rob, and destroy' by getting us to 'eat' (reason) with knowledge of good and evil.

Divorce is SOOOO painful, and we need to not only forgive the other person but forgive our judgments of their words and behavior. Also, break UN-HOLY soul ties of agreement about each other. Then forgive ourselves for our words and behavior. Even when we are the victim, we need to be spiritually cleansed with forgiveness.

Example Three: Family quarrels and negative Energy from stored up wounds and curses...

Two family members had fussed with each other for years—leaving family dreading holidays for fear of what could happen. Their grandmother prayed for them saying, "I forgive Amy's sins; I forgive her judgments of her sister. I forgive her judgments of herself. I pray blessings on her of love, joy, and peace." She then prayed the same for Audrey, her sister. She ended with a declaration of Divine Favor for them, all in the Name of JESUS! A couple of days later Audrey visited her Grandmother's house. The first thing she said was, "You won't believe it! I had the nicest conversation with Amy; it was wonderful!" Grandmother just smiled!

The Grandmother did not live in the same city as either of the girls but knew no distance in sharing with the LORD as HE is always with us, using the awesome power of Grace in forgiveness.

We receive what we 'declare' and out of the abundance of our hearts we speak... meaning we better have an abundance of Jesus and love in our spirit and our hearts. (Matthew 12:34)

We have been talking about 'bath towel' size judgments. Let's look at the 'beach towel size' offenses.

PART FOUR

'BEACH TOWEL' PAIN AND TORMENT... CRIME AND SIN...

Whoops! Before we do that, this would be a good time to clear the air.

Revealed pathways of prayer in this book are not intended to be a new doctrine or a law of any kind.

These pathways are just great insights to help each other to take up our cross and follow JESUS. HE said we could do more than HE did. HE made that possible at the Cross! (John 14:12)

Example One:

MURDER, DEATH, AND GUILT ...

This one was hard to write. I argued for two weeks with the LORD, telling HIM I did not want to share this because this is not 'me' anymore. I am forgiven, and my grandchildren might read this, and so on. Let me assure you we don't win arguing with the LORD. Especially since HE told me my grandchildren may need to know about this so that they can see the redemption and change GOD gives.

In leaving an abusive parent, I married an abusive man. After two children and five years,

I found the courage to leave. But my feelings were still entangled with my husband and the 'one flesh union' was not broken. *More on that in part five.

So, we met to "talk" about reconciliation, and I became pregnant as a result. He left the state, and we rarely heard from him again. I now had two boys to raise on my own. There was no welfare or aid to dependent children. Abortion was illegal. But I could see no other way, and a family member helped me find a doctor to do the procedure.

There are many reasons for sin, but there are no excuses that will save us.

After my divorce, I met a man and became emotionally involved This resulted in another pregnancy. Desperate, I appealed to my doctor who agreed to help me. He was a kind man who was as deceived as I was to what helping me with abortion would mean in our lives—the enemy excels in deception, especially in murder and death. (Revelation 12:9; John 8:44)

For years, I carried the shame and guilt. I knew abortion was wrong but didn't know why. I did not have a personal relationship with JESUS. I believed that life begins at birth, as many do. Scientists have proven life begins at conception. So, bottom-line...abortion is murder. Knowing the reasons behind sin helps nothing. Even pregnancy from rape does not justify killing the child, especially since so many are seeking to adopt.

When I accepted JESUS into my heart, my life changed... I had cried out to GOD! I had tried other religions. Nothing worked until I met JESUS. As I sought more knowledge of HIM in the Bible, my prayers were often answered, and my life totally changed.

When I went to church for baptism, the pastor said as he dipped me into the water, "All your pain, guilt, and shame will be gone when you come up." And it was.... I knew I was forgiven.... how? You just 'know.'

As I learned about forgiving 'judgments' and forgiving everyone involved, I learned to forgive each incident using these four steps:

- 1. I forgive the incident of _____.
- 2. I ask YOU, JESUS, to heal me of the emotions of _____ (shame, guilt, anger, rejection, etc.) the incident caused.
- 3. Please heal the DNA of that memory, so that it will never trigger in me again.
- 4. I close the door on the enemy so it can never be used on me again.

THANK YOU, JESUS, THANK YOU!

Finally learning to forgive myself, in JESUS Name, the HOLY SPIRIT removed the 'trash' in my soul. Abortion was no longer a part of me. I named those children at the direction of the HOLY SPIRIT, and HE has assured me we will be together in Heaven one day.

When the Pastor spoke forgiveness over me, the LORD removed the supernatural curse I was carrying.

Forgiveness does not eradicate the incident; it removes the spiritual result through the GRACE and BLOOD of JESUS!

Divorce, Abuse, Rape, Murder, War, Sexual Abduction, and Molestation are hard to overcome emotionally, and often difficult to find 'closure.' This is especially true for the victims of war; our precious veterans need and deserve this deliverance.

Example Two:

Alice was molested by her father at a very young age. To make it worse, he was a Pastor. Her mother divorced him, but the damage was done. Alice had shredded emotions, and the enemy took advantage of the situation. She became a multiple-personality, housing and hearing from several personalities (demonic evil spirits).

Accepting JESUS as a child gave her hope and as an adult, she was delivered from the demonic influence. She learned to forgive and forgave her father, however she still lived with the memories of her past. She confronted him in love and said she forgave him. He rejected the notion harshly that he ever did anything wrong. This was another great rejection for her to deal with.

Alice found out that he had remarried and did the same to two step-daughters....and no one reported him or ever brought the evil to 'light.' Sadly, in this world, the fear of exposure of the victims gives the abuser a haven. Fortunately, times are changing, and things are getting better in bringing 'sick people' to justice.

REMEMBER FORGIVENESS DOES NOT CANCEL RESPONSIBILITY.

Alice learned to forgive every incident of her past with the help of the HOLY SPIRIT.

The last step for Alice was to forgive herself. Why would we need forgiveness if we are the victim? A friend answered this so well when she was dealing with this problem:

"If your mother dressed you up to go shopping and you went outside to wait for her, and your friends were playing in the mud—you didn't join them, but you got mud on you—you would need to be cleaned up." That's a great example.

With prayer, always forgive the person first, if one is involved. Some have no one involved, just pain, like an illness or a weather disaster. Doing this can take time, as it did for me. I had a lot of abuse and 'baggage' to be healed. Then, always bless people—the abusers with the gifts of the HOLY SPIRIT—love, peace, joy, kindness, compassion, forgiveness, etc. Blessing brings closure after forgiveness so that we end our prayer with the mind of CHRIST. (I Corinthians 2:16, Galatians 5:22-23)

We have learned to ask GOD for forgiveness for ourselves, but to also then forgive ourselves for any pain or judgment we have carried—all to cleanse our soul so that we can receive the blessings JESUS has for us. (John 20:23)

MIND, WILL, AND EMOTIONS—THE SOUL—IS THE FILTER BETWEEN OUR BODY AND OUR SPIRIT.

PART FIVE

Paul tells us in chapter six of Ephesians that we do not fight flesh and blood but principalities and powers in high places. (Ephesians 6:12) The following is an example of judgment too large for a 'clothes line' rather more like a 'blanket' of judgment.

Example One:

A black man was shot in Baltimore, and the judgment against the police was violent anger that grew as the hours and days followed. This resulted in many hurts on both sides, cars destroyed, and business vandalized and ruined. Months later Baltimore has not recovered.

Corporate judgment grows, becomes polarized from an evil principality of power, and results in the mass organization of good or evil.

Months later a white man went into a church in Charleston and joined the prayer group of black believers in prayer. Then he pulled out a gun and shot nine to death and wounded others. He was apprehended and jailed.

The relatives of the victims met and forgave him, went to the jail, and told him. Residents formed a huge group; hundreds of citizens marched through the city declaring forgiveness and peace over the city—comfort for the families showing the love of CHRIST to the world. The shooter will go to jail, but hopefully, forgiveness has opened the door so he can receive JESUS and help other inmates.

The two incidents are so bazaar. One resulted in a perfect picture of evil, while the forgiveness of the people brought 'Shalom' peace to the community in the other.

Many years ago, I heard Dr. Jack Hayford say that Satan is the administer of the curse. Satan, the devil, and his evil spirits seek individuals and groups to rob, kill, and destroy. (John 10:10; Luke 10:19) The good news is... Greater is HE that is in you, than he that is in the world. (I John 4:4)

Note: Not only are the power of words, life, and death, but agreement in judgment creates a supernatural soul-tie. Sexual intimacy creates a 'one flesh union' in the soul. This can only be broken with repentance, forgiveness, and the BLOOD OF JESUS! (Proverbs 18:21; Matthew 18:20)

This explains why abused women return to their abuser—the spiritual soul-tie needs to be broken with the BLOOD of JESUS.

Forgiveness and blessing the abuser, the offender, will bring closure.

Example Two:

The power of agreement is awesome for good or evil. Before the war in the Far East, a pastor was awakened by the HOLY SPIRIT and told to mobilize a million people to pray Hussain would take his wealth and go into exile, and there would be no war. The Pastor did everything he could from his pulpit and through interviews on TV. He received only a few emails that were in agreement with his prayer.

Unfortunately, many emails came from people claiming to be Christians who did not want to do that. Instead, they wanted Hussain destroyed. Well, we went to war.

I asked the LORD why did we need a 'million' to pray in agreement, and HE replied, "Because there are many million behind Hussain, and it would take a million believers, in agreement, to overcome." That was another example of an evil principality using the influence of bad judgment. (Ephesians 6:12)

JESUS delivered many spirits on HIS own, individually, and so can we. But HE did not take on Rome or false religions; HE left that for us to do once the...

Power of HIS resurrection was given to us... when we are in agreement in the SPIRIT. (Luke 10:19; Acts 10:38; Ephesians 4:13)

VETERANS, POLICE, AND FIRST RESPONDERS

When men and women are asked to give their life for others, the memories of what they must do can haunt them for years. First responders have visions of the tragedies they encounter that may also torment them a lifetime.

We send our loved ones to war, into a 'principality of murder and death.' They need our prayers and support when they go, backing them with our agreement and faith in JESUS, to keep them safe and overcome evil with good. There is a great un-holy agreement in evil with our enemies, and we need strong HOLY SPIRITual agreements storming Heaven with our declarations of victory. (Romans 12:21)

When these heroes come home, and many who are home defending us here, they need to be celebrated, blessed, and cared for by declaring the Kingdom of GOD on earth as it is in HEAVEN for them now!

Part of that prayer can be to set them free from memories that affect or destroy their lives—the purpose of this book.

PART SIX

Feelings, Faith, and Failure. . .

Forgiveness of self is so powerful and important. How many times do we give the enemy our power? By saying something like: "I am so stupid;" "I am so clumsy;" "I should be more considerate;" "I should work harder;" "I should be a better Christian," and so on, we curse ourselves. Feelings and emotions follow our thoughts.

Some people are very private and keep their pain to themselves...then there are others who have a need to talk (like me) about them.

There are two things in our life: Facts and Truth!

When we learn to truly trust GOD and believe all things are possible with HIM, we can take the Word of GOD, the testimonies of JESUS, and know—experientially know, they are true. (John 8:32, Matthew 19:26)

Our lives must be full of miracles; we need to share them as a 'testimony.' A testimony means 'to do again.' (Revelation 19:10)

The fact may be that we have a problem, but the TRUTH in Scripture covers every need.

Our brain is the first to hear what we say, and it does not know JESUS is our LORD unless we reinforce our faith in our minds and with our words.

Nowhere in the Bible can I find admonition to trust man...but to love man and trust GOD.

In the morning declaring gratitude to GOD for all we have and declaring we have Divine Health (especially when we don't) will give us a blessed start to our day. (I Corinthians 5:17)

The HOLY SPIRIT started directing me to add forgiveness to end my day. I look back at my day and direct a prayer to my HEAVENLY FATHER. I again thank HIM for giving me another day and for anything else that has blessed me.

Then I think over the day and the pain or discomfort I experienced (even like not being able to open a box or bottle or feeling dizzy or light headed) and use the four little steps I gave before:

- I FORGIVE THE INCIDENT AND PAIN I EXPERIENCED TODAY.
- 2. I ASK YOU, JESUS, TO HEAL ME OF THE EMOTIONS OF PAIN, DEPRESSION, FATIGUE, HOPELESSNESS, ANGER, OR WHATEVER THE PAIN CAUSED.
- 3. PLEASE HEAL THE DNA OF THAT MEMORY, SO THAT IT WILL NEVER TRIGGER IN ME AGAIN.

4. I CLOSE THE DOOR ON THE ENEMY THAT IT CAN NEVER BE USED ON ME AGAIN. THANK YOU, JESUS, THANK YOU!

The wonderful result is that the HOLY SPIRIT takes GOD's big eraser and wipes away those emotions, so we don't carry them forward from day to day. Even as Believers, sickness can go from a simple event to an overcoming burden as thoughts compound and healing seems hopeless.

We know that the soul (our mind) is the filter between our spirit and our body. So without taking on guilt, I check myself for sin or thoughts or declarations I have made that have locked me into bondage. If the HOLY SPIRIT brings something to my mind, I thank HIM, repent (change the way I think), and forgive myself without taking on condemnation. (Romans 8:1)

GOD's will (the desire of HIS HEART) is that all are healed. JESUS prayed, "THY will be done on earth as it is in Heaven..." and there certainly is no sickness or pain in Heaven. (Matthew 6:10)

We must never give up or give in declaring healing scriptures over us or our loved ones every day. Our theology (what we believe about GOD) must never challenge HIS love or HIS Grace in our lives as we press on to victory!

Failure Is Never An Option As We Know The End Of The Book!

I have lived with Romans 8:28 for years, "All things work together for good for those who love the (LORD) GOD..." Not all things are good... sickness, pain, and poverty are evil.... started by and encouraged by the enemy of mankind. (John 10:10) I have seen blessings in others regardless of their circumstances. Prayer is a privilege. We ought always to talk with our HEAVENLY FATHER—to pray, blessing others, and building the Kingdom of GOD on earth.

Many times, our negative judgment is a result of fear from the past or a spirit of fear from the dark side. Confront and take authority over it in the Name of JESUS!

GOD KNOWS WHAT WE HAVE, WHAT WE ARE... HE WANTS TO KNOW WHAT WE BELIEVE HIM FOR...

This book is not a new doctrine. These things shared are not 'law.' It may take time to change our outlook as law and condemnation come from our inherited sin-nature. Our free will gives us the power to change.

Healing incidents is a pleasure; Forgiving judgments is short and 'sweet;' living to forgive becomes a joy!

In review, with the HOLY SPIRIT, we can:

- Forgive people.
- Forgive painful incidents.
- · Repent for our 'judgments.'
- Forgive other people's 'judgments.'
- Forgive other people for their 'judgment' of GOD!
- Forgive ourselves for past incidents and judgments.

ALL IN THE MAJESTIC POWER OF GOD TO CHANGE HEARTS, MINDS, AND CIRCUMSTANCES!

Let us close with these verses:

"Who can understand his errors? Cleanse thou me from secret faults. keep back thy servant from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me; then shall I be upright and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in THY sight, O LORD, my STRENGTH and REDEEMER." (Psalm 19:12-14)

May the LORD quicken (make alive) what HE wants you to have... and it will bless you, your family or friends as you use these pathways of prayer. Please join us in changing the world one forgiveness at a time!
